David C. Lachoff, Los Angeles Chapter

Initiated 1994

Awarded at the 2015 Land Economics Weekend in San Diego, CA

David Lachoff enjoys a distinguished career representing national and international companies in their diversified real estate needs, specializing in investment, office and retail transactions. David began his brokerage career in 1959. He joined the firm of Newmark Knight Frank in 1982, becoming its executive managing director.

He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting/finance from the University of California, Los Angeles.

David served in various roles for the Los Angeles chapter, including president in 1998-1999. In 2000 he was named Chapter Member of the Year and recognized in the following year as International Member of the Year.

He joined the LAI Executive Committee of the Board of Governors 2001, with a long tenure as International Treasurer. He oversaw the resources of both LAI and LEF through periods of management transition, keeping the financial management of the Society and the Foundation in sound order. His continuity and diligence provided an invaluable service to both.

David's son Kevin is also a member of LAI.
